

The Civic Power of Greenways

Public Panel Discussion

Thursday, Nov. 13th 8-9:30 a.m.

Light Breakfast | Panel | Q&A Clark Family Branch Library 1640 S. Lindbergh Blvd.

All are welcome to this free event, where you'll hear thought-provoking insights about how greenway trails create civic impact, connect communities and make our region more vibrant.

Featuring Local & National Experts:

Shaughnessy H. Daniels
Director of Civic Engagement,
Great Rivers Greenway

Jon Jon Wesołowski
The Happy Urbanist

Maflory Rukhsana Nezam
Creative City Consultant
Justice + Joy

Rodney Crim
CEO & President,
St. Louis Economic Development Partnership

Moderated by Kristen Sorth, Director & CEO, St. Louis County Library

Registration encouraged at GreatRiversGreenway.org/panel

Presented, in Partnership, By:

