

ART PARTY

Celebrating public art along
Brickline Greenway on North
Grand, Cass and Spring Avenues!

WEDNESDAY AUGUST 5

STOP BY ANYTIME 5-7PM
REMARKS 6-6:30PM

CONTEMPORARY ART MUSEUM ST. LOUIS
3750 WASHINGTON BOULEVARD

Local, national and international artists are breathing life into the northern section of the Brickline Greenway! Celebrate and learn more at this free, family-friendly event with:

Music from HEAL Center for the Arts

Free food from Mother's Fish

Brickline Greenway-themed, take-home screen printing activity from Christopher Loss, People's Art and Recreation Center

Bring your own shirt to screen print

Brand new spoken word performance by City of St. Louis Poet Laureate Pacia Anderson

REGISTER TO GET
DETAILS/REMINDERS

(or just come by!)

BricklineGreenway.org/artparty

This 2-mile section of Brickline Greenway between Fairground Park and Grand Center Arts District will include:

Murals, Sculptures and Gallery on the Ground from 20+ Local Artists

18andCounting | Alicia LaChance | Amy Miller | Andrèa Hughes | AVV A | Ayanna Thompson-Washington | Brian DePauli | Brian Lathan | Brock Seals | Cbabi Bayoc | De'Joneiro Jones | Elena Nunez | Fatou Kabir | Jamie Bonfiglio | Joseph Mueller | Lizzy Martinez | Marquis Terrell | Mercedes Armstrong | natashNa A. | People's Art and Recreation Center | Robert Green | Sequoi Edwards | simiya sudduth |

Sculpture & seating by Christine Corday, a gift to St. Louis from Edward Jones

© 2026 Courtesy of DTLS and GRG, SmithGroup, David Mason and Associates, Lochmueller Group, and Grice Group team

Sculpture by Yinka Shonibare, loaned by Gateway Foundation

(TURNING 40 THIS YEAR!)

